

TWO MEETINGS HELD IN MANSFIELD.

ON LORD'S DAY, November 4, 1900, Elder and Mrs. W. F. Matthews and Elder H. R. Armstrong eluded the police, entered Mansfield, Ohio, and held two meetings without molestation, celebrating the Lord's Supper in the morning

In the afternoon the mob followed Elder and Mrs. Matthews, not knowing that another Elder was in the city. Elder Armstrong succeeded in holding another meeting.

The mob did not dare to harm the Elders, although the police did not put in any appearance, but were so angry when they found that Elder Armstrong had held a meeting that they kicked him several times as he boarded the train.

By Overseer Piper's orders the party returned to Zion, Chicago, on Lord's Day evening

This is a glorious victory in intolerant and mob-cursed Mansfield.

Let all Zion everywhere praise God and pray for complete triumph.
